ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION (ADR)

Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) at Barley Snyder
For seasoned litigators, the inefficiencies of protracted courtroom proceedings are well understood. Traditional trial practice often diverts critical corporate leadership from operational priorities, imposes substantial financial costs, and subjects parties to unpredictable outcomes. Yet, bilateral settlement negotiations frequently falter due to entrenched adversarial positions and the absence of a neutral for constructive dialogue.

Barley Snyder's ADR practitioners bring decades of collective experience as trial lawyers, mediators, and arbitrators. Our team is distinguished by its niche subject matter knowledge and its ability to meld practical business judgment with rigorous advocacy. Our goal is to enable parties to achieve durable, cost-efficient, and relationship-preserving outcomes.

Our ADR professionals are routinely engaged to resolve disputes across a wide spectrum of practice areas, with specific expertise in the fields of banking and financial services, employment and labor relations, environmental and regulatory compliance, real estate and land use, and fiduciary litigation. Barley Snyder's ADR team is uniquely positioned to guide sophisticated clients and their counsel through the most complex disputes with efficiency, discretion, and an unwavering focus on outcome optimization.
