OVERVIEW:

Anthony is a member in the firm's Business and Finance & Creditors' Rights practice groups. He joins Barley Snyder after participating in the firm's Summer Associate Program. He has a passion for business law, real estate law and tax law.

Anthony graduated from Penn State Dickinson School of Law with a Certificate in Entrepreneurship Law. He has gained hands-on legal experience through numerous internships throughout his educational career. Anthony interned for the Pennsylvania Office of Attorney General - Bureau of Consumer Protection and for the Pennsylvania Treasury - Board of Finance and Revenue. Aside from completing the Summer Associate Program at Barley, Anthony worked as a summer associate for another regional law firm based in Harrisburg where he gained experience drafting a plethora of legal documents and performing legal research in the areas of business contract litigation, real estate and business entity formation. In addition, Anthony served as a contracts law tutor and an article editor for the Dickinson Law Review.

While pursuing his undergraduate degree, Anthony was actively involved on campus. He served as a Penn State Lion Ambassador, communicating the university's history and traditions to students, alumni, and friends through tours, programming, and community service. He was the President of the Beta Gamma Sigma International Business Honors Society and served as the Nittany Lion Mascot at the Harrisburg campus.

Outside of the firm, Anthony enjoys dancing - specifically Street Hip Hop, West Coast Swing and Latin Ballroom Dancing. The Bucks County native also enjoys obstacle course racing and cooking.
