Tel: (610) 370-8157

OVERVIEW:

Avey is a paralegal in Barley Snyder's Trusts & Estates Practice Group, where she supports attorneys and clients through all stages of estate administration. She has more than a decade of legal experience. Her attention to detail and practical experience make her a valuable resource to both attorneys and clients.

Avey brings extensive experience handling the estate administration process, including probate, preparing legal notices and advertisements, marshaling assets and debts, coordinating appraisals and real estate transactions, and preparing and filing Pennsylvania inheritance tax returns, family settlement agreements, and closing status reports. She communicates regularly with clients, accountants and other professionals to help ensure matters proceed efficiently and accurately.

In addition to her trusts and estates work, Avey has experience supporting related matters involving municipal law, real estate transactions, and estate planning. She earned her associate's degree in paralegal studies from Berks Technical Institute.
