For Immediate Release

Harrisburg, Pa. - Barley Snyder is pleased to announce it has hired Lori McElroy as the newest attorney in its Tax and Business practice groups.

McElroy, an of counsel at the firm, is the latest addition to Barley Snyder's newest office in Harrisburg. She has experience in working with qualified retirement plans and the governmental regulations that follow them. She also has experience in helping companies establish the complex employee stock ownership plans (ESOP) that have become popular as a profit-sharing employee perk.

"I am very happy to join Barley Snyder," McElroy said. "The firm comes with an impeccable reputation, and everything I have experienced shows me that reputation is well-deserved."

The Harrisburg office, opened in January, now boasts 11 attorneys along with other professionals. McElroy, like the other attorneys in the Harrisburg office, is a former attorney at Rhoads & Sinon. The firm's overall attorney headcount now stands at 94.

"Bringing on Lori continues to give us depth in our Harrisburg office and adds strength to our tax, ESOP and employee benefits practices," said Jeff Lobach, Barley Snyder's managing partner. "Since opening the office, we've already seen our business in the Capital Region multiply thanks to the team we've established there."
