For Immediate Release

Lebanon, Pa. - Barley Snyder is pleased to announce attorney Nichole L. Eisenhart has recently joined the firm in its Lebanon office.

With nearly two decades of legal experience, Eisenhart brings a wealth of knowledge to the firm. She worked at the Lebanon County District Attorney's Office for 17 years, most recently serving as First Assistant District Attorney. Her time working in the public sector has provided her with a unique perspective of the law in addition to extensive trial experience. At Barley Snyder, Eisenhart will focus her practice on the areas of trusts & estates and litigation.

"It's an exciting opportunity to launch my career in private practice at such a distinguished and dominant law firm in Pennsylvania," said Eisenhart. "I am eager to foster relationships and help clients within the thriving Lebanon community and beyond."

During her tenure at the District Attorney's Office, Eisenhart's leadership and legal acumen were highly regarded, receiving the 2016 Outstanding Prosecutor Award from the Pennsylvania Narcotic Officers' Association and the 2018 Award for Outstanding Trial Advocacy from the Department of Justice. She is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State University Dickinson School of Law, and she obtained her bachelor's degree from the Edinboro University of Pennsylvania.

"We believe Nichole is going to be an excellent addition to our team. She is the first lawyer we have added since opening in Lebanon last spring," said managing partner Jeff Lobach. "Nichole's substantial trial experience and dedication to her craft are exactly what we look for in our attorneys."

Attorney Megan Ryland Tanner, who previously worked with Eisenhart in the District Attorney's office and is currently based out of the firm's Lebanon office, stated "Nichole is an outstanding addition to Barley Snyder. She brings with her a solid legal foundation and strong advocacy skills. Her professional demeanor and attention to detail will serve to be an asset when working with clients."
