For Immediate Release

Lancaster, Pa. - Barley Snyder is pleased to announce that it has added creditors' rights attorney Matthew G. Brushwood to its Reading office.

Brushwood will be part of Barley Snyder's Finance & Creditors' Rights Practice Group. He has spent nearly a decade representing national lenders and servicers, handling complex litigation and overseeing his prior firm's Pennsylvania litigation group.

"Barley Snyder has a strong reputation throughout the state in finance and creditors' rights. This is what drew me to the firm," Brushwood said. "I'm excited to be a part of this team."

Before law school, Brushwood worked as an analyst at a closely held, international commodity trading business as well as a large investment company. This experience provided a solid platform for his legal career and enhances his unique ability to understand client needs and expectations.

"Matt provides the kind of well-rounded background and legal acumen we seek in our attorneys," Barley Snyder managing partner Jeff Lobach said. "His business and legal experience makes him a great addition to our team."
