For Immediate Release

York, Pa. - Barley Snyder is pleased to announce Attorney Julia Parrish has recently joined the firm in its York office.

Parrish brings two decades of experience to Barley Snyder in the areas of estate planning and trust and estate administration. She is passionate about helping her clients through challenging times. In her practice, Parrish assists clients with creating comprehensive estate plans to meet their goals in addition to business succession planning, tax planning, and representing clients in guardianship matters.

"It's an incredible honor to work for such a successful, regional law firm that has demonstrated significant growth in Pennsylvania over the years," said Parrish. "I look forward to assisting my clients and furthering my practice at Barley Snyder."

Before joining Barley Snyder, Parrish served as counsel for a firm in Dauphin County working in estate planning and trust and estate administration. Prior to that, Parrish worked for a small firm in Lancaster County where she established an estate planning and administration practice.

"Julia brings an abundance of experience to our firm with a strong background in trusts and estates," said managing partner Jeff Lobach. "Her work ethic and compassion for her clients are exactly what we look for in our attorneys. I'm sure she will be a valuable member of our team."

A committed member of her community, Parrish serves as a board member at a pregnancy care center in Lancaster County and is involved with Lancaster Catholic High School's Fine & Performing Arts program as a member of the Parent Leadership Team. She is also actively involved with Saint Leo the Great School and Catholic Church.
