

Barley Snyder Attorney Christopher Naylor Graduates from Leadership York Training Program

PUBLISHED ON
June 22, 2015

York, PA - The law firm of Barley Snyder is pleased to announce that Christopher Naylor has graduated from the Leadership York Training Program. In addition to being a member of the Leadership York Class of 2015, he was also elected a class representative. Chris is an associate in the firm's real estate and business groups. He has notable experience in state law and policy, and prior to attending law school Chris served as the Director of Government Affairs at the York County Builders Association and Executive Director for the late state senator Mike Waugh.

Leadership York's Training Program is a nine-month course on York County history and community issues. Participants fine-tune their leadership skills, enhance their knowledge and receive guidance in choosing and applying for a board, elected or appointed position. Leadership York's more than 3,170 graduates provide leadership to over 250 nonprofit organizations and serve thousands of constituents in state and local government.

About Barley Snyder

Barley Snyder is a law firm based in central Pennsylvania with more than 65 attorneys practicing from offices located in Lancaster, York, Reading, Malvern and Hanover, Pennsylvania and Hunt Valley, Maryland. The firm serves businesses, individuals and organizations all major areas of civil law including: business, employment, immigration, employee benefits, finance & creditors' rights, intellectual property, litigation, estate planning and administration, real estate, tax, construction, environment and energy, health care, higher education and municipal authority. www.barley.com | @BarleySnyder

###

Media Contact: Jenna Wagner, Director of Marketing
jwagner@barley.com or 717-399-1573