For Immediate Release

York, Pa. - Barley Snyder attorney Julia M. Parrish has been named to the York Habitat for Humanity's Philanthropy Committee.

York Habitat for Humanity (YHFH), part of Habitat for Humanity International, is a nonprofit organization dedicated to building and improving homes for low-income families in York County. Since its inception in 1985, YHFH has helped create new opportunities for over 750 individuals and families by providing safe, affordable housing with the support of dedicated volunteers. The Philanthropy Committee, a key volunteer-driven initiative, plays a critical role in supporting the programs and operations of YHFH, contributing to its ongoing mission of transforming communities and fostering stability for local families.

"It is an honor to assist York Habitat for Humanity, an organization whose efforts continue to make a real difference in tackling housing insecurity, a real issue in our York County community," said Parrish. "I am grateful for this opportunity and look forward to contributing my skills to York Habitat."

Parrish is a member of Barley Snyder's Trusts & Estates Practice Group where she focuses her practice in the areas of estate planning and trust and estate administration. With more than two decades of experience, she works closely with her clients to achieve their goals and effectively plan for the future. Active in her community, Parrish is a frequent speaker on the topic of estate planning in addition to being involved with other local organizations.
