For Immediate Release

Lancaster, Pa. - Barley Snyder is pleased to announce that Partner Lauralee B. Baker has been appointed to the board of directors of the Lancaster Symphony Orchestra (LSO). With unanimous support from the board, Baker joins the organization in its mission to deliver exceptional live music experiences, provide valuable educational opportunities, cultivate an appreciation for the arts, and enrich Lancaster through accessible performing arts.

Since its inception in 1947, the LSO has been committed to providing high-quality performances, unique repertoire, and educational services to the community. In addition to its annual concert season, the organization offers various outreach programs such as its LSO Neighborhood Series which provides free and engaging performances throughout our community and its StandPartners program which sends LSO musicians to classrooms for musical collaboration and discussion.

"I am honored to join the board of the Lancaster Symphony Orchestra, a shining beacon in our Lancaster community," said Baker. "This organization has opened doors for students by making musical education and instruments readily available, allowing them to embark on a lifelong and rewarding musical journey."

Baker's appointment continues Barley Snyder's long history of support for the LSO and the performing arts in Lancaster. The board has also outlined plans to engage Baker in the Governance and Development Committees within the organization.

"We are thrilled to welcome Lauralee Baker to the Lancaster Symphony Orchestra's Board of Directors. Her passion for music and background in healthcare prove her commitment to the health and vibrancy of our community and make Lauralee a perfect fit for our Board of Directors," stated Guy McIntosh, Executive Director at Lancaster Symphony Orchestra.

Baker is a partner in the firm's Litigation Practice Group and Health Care Industry Group with more than 30 years of experience. She represents health care providers such as hospitals and physicians in medical malpractice defense litigation and before regulatory agencies. Baker's dedication to her craft has been recognized by her peers, receiving numerous honors including being named to The Best Lawyers in America for health care litigation for 10 consecutive years and holding an AV Preeminent Rating by Martindale-Hubbell.
