For Immediate Release

Lancaster, Pa. - Barley Snyder Attorney Luke T. Weber was recently elected to the board of directors of the Lancaster County Food Hub. The organization provides food, clothing, and emergency overnight shelter for people in need. Weber will pursue continuing these aims with the board as it continues to grow as a large social service agency. The Lancaster County Food Hub has served the community since it was founded as the Lancaster County Council of Churches in 1947.

"I am excited and honored to join the Lancaster County Food Hub board and to serve our community with this group. I have been inspired by the tremendous amount of dedication the team pours into the community and the amount of good work that is accomplished," said Weber. "I look forward to contributing my own skills and energy ."

Weber is a trial attorney in the firm's Litigation and Health Care groups. In his career, Weber has represented clients in numerous cases in Lancaster County throughout the Commonwealth. He devotes a substantial portion of his practice to defending doctors, hospitals, and other health care professionals against medical malpractice claims. Weber also maintains an active commercial litigation practice assisting individuals and businesses through disputes.

"I am thrilled for Luke to serve on the board of an organization which serves such an important role in our community," said partner and Health Care Industry Group Chair, Kathy Kravitz. "Luke is a very selfless and compassionate colleague. He will undoubtedly be an ideal addition to their board."

Weber is a graduate of Widener University and obtained his J.D. at Penn State Dickinson Law. A Lancaster native, he lives just outside of Lancaster with his wife Ashley and their two young daughters.
