For Immediate Release

Lancaster, Pa. - Barley Snyder is pleased to announce that attorney Elizabeth Melamed has been named to the board of directors for the Lancaster division of the American Heart Association.

Nationwide, the association works to promote healthy living practices and opportunities in the community. It provides community CPR training, significantly funds research and promotes workplace health.

"The American Heart Association has evolved into one of the most important organizations in the world when it comes to a community's health," Melamed said. "And a community's health is directly related to its viability, making it of paramount importance to a community's overall success. I'm proud to be part of this organization that promotes healthy living in such a variety of ways and with real results. It is a relentless force for a world of longer, healthier lives."

Melamed is a member of Barley Snyder's Litigation Practice Group and its Health Law and Cybersecurity industry groups. In addition to her new role with the American Heart Association, Elizabeth is on the board of directors at A&E Hearing Connection and she volunteers with the Boys & Girls Club of Lancaster.
