For Immediate Release

Gettysburg, Pa. - Barley Snyder is pleased to announce attorney Natalie Alexander has been admitted to the Adams County Bar Association - a professional organization with approximately 65 lawyers focused on improving the legal profession, the administration of justice, and the lives of the Adams County citizens.

Alexander joined Barley Snyder in September 2023 as the newest attorney in its Gettysburg office. She is a member of the firm's Business and Real Estate practice groups. Alexander is a graduate of Pennsylvania State Dickinson Law and a magna cum laude graduate of the University of Maryland.

"It was an honor to be sworn in as a member of the Adams County Bar Association at the Adams County Courthouse, marking a milestone in my career," Alexander said. "I look forward to developing my legal practice at Barley Snyder while serving the legal needs of the community in Gettysburg and beyond."

While in law school, Alexander worked as a summer and fall associate for a firm in South Central Pennsylvania and was a Judicial Intern for the Honorable Martin C. Carlson at the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania. She is a native of Hagerstown, Maryland, and is fluent in Spanish. Active in her community, Alexander volunteers with Micah's Backpack, a program in Hagerstown designed to feed hungry students over the weekend by providing them healthy meals and snacks to take home.

"Natalie brings an array of experience to our firm with a desire to grow in her practice areas," said attorney Adam Boyer. "With our recent Gettysburg expansion, this is an exciting time for us. We're very pleased that we were able to bring Natalie on board and have no doubt that she will be a great asset to the firm."
