For Immediate Release

Lancaster, Pa. - Barley Snyder is pleased to announce Attorney Reilly S. Noetzel has been appointed to new roles with the Pennsylvania Bar Association \(PBA\) and the Penn Manor Education Foundation \(PMEF\). Noetzel was elected to a three-year term with the PBA House of Delegates and has been named to the board of directors of PMEF.

The PBA is a voluntary bar association consisting of lawyers and law students in Pennsylvania, offering member benefits such as practice support, networking opportunities and continuing education. As a delegate, Noetzel will assist with setting the policy of the PBA and vote on matters affecting the substance and administration of PBA policy, as noted on its website. The House of Delegates also has the authority to judge the election and qualifications of its own members, controls all membership dues and approves increases. Noetzel is also a council member of PBA's Real Property, Probate, and Trust Law Section.

The PMEF is a nonprofit community-based organization that provides educational opportunities for Penn Manor School District students. Since 2000, PMEF has awarded over $1 million in grants and student scholarships, according to its website. As a board member, Noetzel will help with fundraising efforts, reviewing and awarding scholarship applications, and furthering PMEF's mission of advancing the role of education in our community. Noetzel is a 2009 graduate of Penn Manor High School.

"I am thrilled to begin these two new roles with the Pennsylvania Bar Association's House of Delegates and the Penn Manor Education Foundation," said Noetzel. "It is an honor to contribute to these impactful organizations - one of which I can pay my success forward, stemming from the outstanding staff at Penn Manor which paved my education path."

Noetzel is a member of the Barley Snyder Real Estate Practice Group and several other groups in addition to being a licensed title agent. He dedicates his practice to the representation of clients in all aspects of their real estate transactions and developments with a particular focus on land use and development, construction and regulatory matters as well as leasing. A native of Lancaster County, Noetzel is also a member of the Lancaster Public Library's Board of Trustees and serves on the Central Market Trust's Board of Directors in addition to other roles in community and industry-related organizations.
