

Barley Snyder Further Expands Gettysburg Office

PUBLISHED ON

October 31, 2023

For Immediate Release

Gettysburg, Pa. - Barley Snyder is excited to announce the successful completion of renovations to its Gettysburg office. This expansion follows significant growth in the Adams County area and underscores the firm's commitment to expanding its presence in the historic downtown location.

The recent expansion has nearly tripled the office space, adding an additional 4,650 square feet to the existing office at 123 Baltimore Street. The state-of-the-art office now boasts a total of 7,200 square feet, providing ample room for both internal and external visitors from across the firm's footprint. New features include four spacious conference rooms and six visiting offices as well as the addition of more natural light by opening windows that were previously covered with brick.

"We've held a long-term vision for our presence in Gettysburg since opening our doors in 2017, aiming to deliver top-notch and accessible legal services to the region," said managing partner Jeff Lobach. "The additional space will greatly benefit our attorneys, staff and clients in Gettysburg and the surrounding areas, including Hanover, Chambersburg and Carlisle, while providing us room to grow and add new talent to our team."

The renovations were completed at the end of September, marking a significant milestone as it had been five years since its last expansion in 2018. Barley Snyder's Gettysburg office is located immediately adjacent to the Adams County Courthouse and just over a one-block walk from the downtown's busy square, providing accessibility and convenience within the community.

"We greatly value the firm's dedication to accommodating our evolving needs in Gettysburg," said attorney Harry Eastman. "The new space will enhance our operations here while benefitting future members and clients of the firm."

Barley Snyder recently welcomed attorney Natalie Alexander to its Gettysburg office in September, heralding the beginning of further growth. In 2020, Eastman and Adam Boyer both joined the office as attorneys along with Marianne Drummond who joined the firm as a paralegal.

Boyer shared his enthusiasm stating "this has been a very exciting time for our Gettysburg office. We look forward to our continued strategic growth within Adams County and beyond, enabling us to better serve our clients and communities."
