Lancaster, Pa. - Barley Snyder is pleased to announce that Partner Christopher J. Churchill has recently been elected to the board of directors of Tel Hai Retirement Community.

Tel Hai, located in Honeybrook, Pa. close to the border of Lancaster and Chester counties, is a nonprofit life plan community with a long-standing reputation of providing exemplary service and care for eight hundred seniors.

"I am excited and honored to join the Tel Hai board and to serve this community, and for years I have been awed by the beauty of its picturesque setting each time I visit," said Churchill. "Its leadership team is extremely caring and committed, and I look forward to contributing my efforts to Tel Hai's valuable mission to improve the lives of seniors."

Tel Hai, which means "Hill of Life" in Hebrew, offers distinctive accommodations and amenities, and a full continuum of services for seniors, including residential living, personal care, memory support, home/health care, short-term rehabilitation, and outpatient therapy services.

"As board chair, I welcome Chris as he joins the Tel Hai Services board. Chris has been a trusted colleague and will bring a valuable resource to the board. We look forward to his expertise as he serves in this role," said Eva Bering, Board Chair of Tel Hai Services.

David Shenk, President and CEO of Tel Hai Services, stated that "Chris will leverage his depth of senior living experience to continue to advance Tel Hai's mission and future growth."

Churchill is the chair of Barley Snyder's Senior Living Industry Group and a member and former chair of the Health Care Industry Group. He represents CCRCs/Life Care Communities, assisted living/personal care facilities, nursing homes, home/health care agencies, senior housing developers and other clients engaged in senior living and health care. His experience includes corporate governance, regulatory compliance and licensing, mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures and affiliations, payor and other contracting matters, and general business transactions. Churchill has previous experience serving on the boards of various nonprofit and community organizations.
