York, Pa. - LifePath Christian Ministries of York has named Barley Snyder partner Michael J. Crocenzi the president of its board of directors.

Since 2018, Crocenzi has been on the board of directors of the nonprofit organization, which provides food, shelter and a connection to support services for those in need in the York area. The organization has been helping the needy in the York community since 1962.

"When you see the work that LifePath does first hand, you see how much it is needed, and how much it needs the community's support," Crocenzi said. "I see that all the time working with LifePath, and I'm proud to champion the good it does and the changes it can make not just in a person's life, but in an entire community."

Crocenzi is a member of the firm's Employment and Litigation practice groups, as well as a number of other service teams and industry groups.

In addition to LifePath Christian Ministries, he is the treasurer and a board member at the York County Bar Foundation. In 2017, the Bethesda Mission in Harrisburg named him "Volunteer of the Year."
