York, Pa. - Barley Snyder partner Justin A. Tomevi has graduated from a York County program designed to further the leadership experience of the county's business community.

Tomevi this spring advanced through Mentorship York, an offshoot program of Leadership York, which nurtures the most promising leaders into future leadership roles throughout the community. Mentorship York works on the next phase of leadership, cultivating leaders to transfer what they've learned to the next generation of leaders.

Tomevi graduated from the Leadership York program in 2014, and has gone on to use the skills he learned there in board of directors positions at organizations such as Springettsbury Township, the York and York County YMCA and the York JCC.

"The Mentorship York program is helping to make sure there is a strong stable of leaders available to answer the call when their community needs them," Tomevi said. "The many charitable and government agencies of York County deserve strong leadership, and Mentorship York is helping to build those leaders."

Tomevi is a member of the firm's Litigation Practice Group, as well as its Finance & Creditors' Rights Practice Group and the COVID-19 Response Service Team. Pennsylvania Super Lawyers recently named him a "Rising Star" for the sixth consecutive year.
