For Immediate Release

Lancaster, Pa. - Barley Snyder is pleased to announce the addition of two partners to the firm's partnership group effective January 1st. The following attorneys were elected in September 2023.

Jennifer Stetter is a member of the firm's Trusts & Estates and Elder Law groups with more than 20 years of experience. She focuses her practice on estate planning and estate administration in addition to representing clients in guardianship matters and Medicaid planning matters. Her work in estate planning and administration dovetails with the business and real estate elements of her practice. A Hanover native, Stetter dedicates her time to serving in various board and committee roles for local organizations including as a board member for The Eichelberger Performing Arts Center and the York County Community Foundation.

"It has been an immense pleasure working for Barley Snyder and having the opportunity to assist clients in my areas of practice. I am honored to be elected to partnership," said Stetter. "I look forward to this new chapter in my legal career."

Luke T. Weber is a trial attorney in the Litigation and Health Care groups with more than a decade of experience. Weber is experienced in all stages of litigation and has represented clients in numerous cases throughout Pennsylvania in both state and federal courts. Weber devotes a substantial portion of his practice to defending doctors, hospitals and other health care professionals against medical malpractice claims in addition to maintaining an active commercial litigation practice. The Lancaster County native is active in his community, currently serving on the boards of the Lancaster County Food Hub and the Lancaster Bar Association as Treasurer.

"I was grateful for the opportunity to join Barley Snyder a few years ago, and I am honored to be elected to the firm's partnership," said Weber. "I have tremendous respect for all of my colleagues at the firm and look forward to our continued growth and opportunities moving forward."

"Individuals like Jennifer and Luke are the reason that we have a strong reputation as one of the most dominant law firms in the region," said Managing Partner Jennifer Craighead Carey. "The exceptional contributions in their respective practices make them invaluable assets to our firm and our clients."
