Lancaster, Pa. - Barley Snyder attorney Caleb Setlock was named to the Board of Directors of the United Way of Lancaster County. He began his term on June 1.

Prior to being named to the Board, Setlock served as a volunteer for the United Way.

"United Way of Lancaster County is an awesome organization that impacts our local community in countless ways," Setlock said. "Their work leading change and guiding resources is admirable. I am looking forward to continuing this influence through board service and volunteerism."

Setlock practices in the Employment Practice Group in Barley Snyder's Lancaster office. A native of Lancaster, Setlock represents employers in litigation and advising on best-practice methods.

Setlock received his B.A. and J.D. from Duquesne University where he graduated cum laude. He is admitted to practice in the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania, and in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.
