CONSTRUCTION LITIGATION

For decades, our attorneys at Barley Snyder have worked with clients on all stages of the construction process, from the start of a project to the end and beyond. We possess thorough knowledge of the complexities ofconstructionprojects including the scope of work, contract specifications and actual construction work.

As a result of the cost and intricacies of construction projects, there is a high probability for legal claims. There may be issues with the financial aspects of a project, delays in construction or defective work. When problems arise, our dedicated group of construction attorneys are prepared to aggressively defend our clients. We are well-versed in the various instances ofalternative dispute resolution,mediation and litigationspecific to the construction industry.

Our construction litigation professionals regularly represent general contractors, subcontractors, design professionals, owners, developers, suppliers, and insurers in both public and private sector projects. We have successfully mediated or litigated claims including:

- Delay damage claims
- Design defect claims
- Defective work claims
- Failure to pay claims
- Change order and additional work claims
- Mechanics' lien and bond claims

Our attorneys are committed to representing our clients through all aspects of a construction dispute to protect their rights and advise as to the best legal options for their situation.
