

CREDITORS' RIGHTS

Barley Snyder's Creditors' Rights Practice Group has extensive experience in dealing with creditors' rights including foreclosures, collections, bankruptcy matters and more. When specific loan assets become non-performing or otherwise troubled, we have you covered. Our Creditors' Rights attorneys assist creditors, financial institutions, and lenders with:

- Loan modification and restructuring
- Workout and orderly liquidations including secured party sales
- Judicial enforcement including confession of judgment, mortgage foreclosures, personal property executions, and actions on notes and guarantees
- Sale of loans individually or in pools
- Lender liability issues
- Enforcement of lenders' rights in bankruptcy including cash collateral orders, plan objections, and relief from the automatic stay
- Managing and disposing of REO real estate

Our Creditors' Rights attorneys work closely with the firm's Litigation, Business, Finance, Tax and Real Estate groups to provide comprehensive resources to meet all of your legal needs as a creditor and provide cost-effective solutions.
