OVERVIEW:

Eden concentrates most of her practice in the areas of commercial transactions, debtor/creditor law and general and commercial litigation. She considers herself a problem solver, and her MBA degree helps her better understand the business impact of a company's legal issues.

Eden also handles real estate, municipal and fiduciary litigation matters. She is admitted to practice before the Pennsylvania Supreme Court and the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Eden received her Juris Doctor and Master of Business Administration degrees simultaneously from the Widener University School of Law. She is a member of the American, Pennsylvania and Berks County Bar associations, as well as the Commercial Law League of America.

Eden also is a past president of the Berks County Bar Association and is a member of its Federal Civil Practice and Procedure and Bankruptcy sections. She currently serves as a Conciliator for the Berks County Mortgage Foreclosure Diversion Program and is the Berks County Credit Card Arbitration Master.
