

INJURY LITIGATION

When an injury has a significant impact on an individual's life, family or business, experienced legal counsel can be critical in navigating the challenges that follow.

Barley Snyder's Injury Litigation team represents individuals and families in complex and substantial injury matters. As a full-service law firm, we provide sophisticated counsel when a serious injury creates legal, financial, business or personal challenges. Our attorneys combine strategic advocacy, thorough investigation and courtroom experience to pursue appropriate compensation and accountability while addressing the broader issues that may affect a client, family or business.

Our Experience Includes:

- Catastrophic injury claims
- Product liability claims
- Wrongful death and survival actions
- Motor vehicle and truck accidents involving serious injuries
- Motorcycle accidents involving serious injuries
- Bicycle and pedestrian accidents involving serious injuries

Our attorneys are experienced litigators who regularly handle complex disputes in state and federal courts. We understand how insurance companies evaluate claims, how liability is established and how damages are proven. From initial investigation through settlement negotiations, mediation or trial, we provide practical guidance and strong advocacy every step of the way.

At Barley Snyder, clients benefit from the resources and capabilities of a full-service law firm that can support them before, during, and after an injury matter. Serious injuries often give rise to legal issues that extend beyond the injury claim itself, including estate administration, tax considerations, business interests, insurance matters, and other related legal concerns.

When additional legal issues arise, our Injury Litigation team collaborates with attorneys across the firm to provide comprehensive counsel and coordinated support. This integrated approach allows us to help clients address the broader impact an injury can have on their lives while providing the responsive service and trusted guidance they have come to expect from Barley Snyder.
