OVERVIEW:

Jennifer is a partner at Barley Snyder and a dedicated member of the firm's Trusts & Estates Practice Group, focusing her practice primarily on estate planning and estate administration.

Jennifer's estate planning work involves the preparation of wills, financial and health care powers of attorney, and other estate planning documents, as well as trust creation and administration. Her practice also includes probate and estate administration through which a deceased person's property and other assets are distributed and the estate is managed and settled. Jennifer has practiced in courts throughout central Pennsylvania, including Adams, Berks, Cumberland, Franklin, Fulton and York counties.

Her work in estate planning and administration also serves as a lead-in to the business and real estate elements of her practice. Her business and real estate experience includes:

- Entity formation
- Small business asset and stock purchases
- Commercial and residential real estate settlement and refinancing
- Preparation of commercial and residential purchase agreements

Jennifer is a native of Hanover and lives in the Hanover area with her husband and daughter. She is a member of St. Joseph Catholic Church in Hanover, and is a graduate of Delone Catholic High School.
