

John Sylvanus Appointed to York Symphony Orchestra's Board of Directors

PUBLISHED ON

January 28, 2013

York, PA - The Law Office of Barley Snyder is pleased to announce that John Sylvanus has been appointed to the Board of Directors for the York Symphony Orchestra. He is an attorney in the firm's Litigation and Construction Law groups.

John is an experienced litigator who counsels clients in construction-related matters, with experience in litigation in both state and federal courts, arbitration and mediation and appellate litigation. His practice focuses on defense of professional liability claims against design professionals, commercial litigation, construction contract review and litigation, insurance defense and products liability defense.

A graduate of the University of Pittsburgh School of Law and the University of Delaware, John is a member of the Pennsylvania and York County Bar Associations.

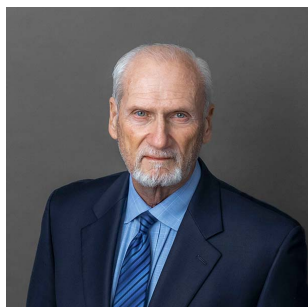

The mission of York Symphony Orchestra is to provide live orchestral music to the people of South Central Pennsylvania and Northern Maryland.

Barley Snyder is a law firm based in Central Pennsylvania with 65 attorneys and offices located in York, Lancaster, Reading, Malvern and Hanover. The firm serves businesses and individual clients in all major areas of civil law, including business and corporate law, litigation, taxation, labor, employment, employee benefits, workers' compensation and immigration, environmental law, banking, securities, municipal law, real estate, trusts and estates law and family law. For more information about the firm and its attorneys, visit www.barley.com.

###

Media Contact: Jenna Wagner, Director of Marketing
jwagner@barley.com or 717-399-1573

:

John J. Sylvanus

Counsel

Tel: (717) 852-4988

Email: jsylvanus@barley.com