OVERVIEW:

Kendall Martin is a paralegal for the firm's Trusts & Estates Practice Group, helping guide clients through the trust and estate administration process. She recognizes that each client and each estate is unique and distinct, and resolves to stay sensitive to their individual circumstances.

In her estate administration practice, Kendall:

- Prepares PA inheritance tax returns and federal estate tax returns
- Assists with gift tax returns
- Maintains estate and trust accounts
- Analyzes and organizes estate and trust asset information
- Partners with other professionals to have real estate and personal property appraisals, asset valuations and income tax returns completed as needed
- Coordinates asset distributions

Kendall received an art education degree from Kutztown University. Outside of work, she enjoys skiing, watercolor painting, and creating pen and ink or charcoal drawings. Kendall also enjoys attending live shows and is a passionate Penn State sports fan.
