Lancaster/York, Pa. - Barley Snyder is pleased to announce the firm's partnership has reelected Jeff Lobach as its managing partner and chief executive officer for a two-year term starting in 2020.

Lobach's fourth term as managing partner starts Jan. 1. The position entails the oversight of operations and the long-term planning for the firm. In his six years in this role, he has witnessed the exciting growth of the firm from about 55 attorneys in 2014 to more than 100 attorneys currently.

The firm has opened five offices during Lobach's managing partner tenure, in Harrisburg, Gettysburg and Schuylkill Haven in Pennsylvania, and in Hunt Valley and Columbia in Maryland. It has tripled the size of its existing Hanover office and has moved its Malvern office to a technologically advanced location that will allow for current and future growth. The firm has heavily invested in its technological infrastructure and has implemented additional employee reward programs.

Adding new attorneys and offices has helped Barley Snyder increase its level of service to both existing and new clients, Lobach said.

"It was humbling when our partnership elected me as the firm's managing partner six years ago," he said. "To earn their trust for a fourth term suggests their approval of the course we have charted these last few years. The partners and our entire team have steadfastly supported our regional model of practice to ensure sustainability and success in our markets - and our future markets. I am grateful our partnership continues to have the confidence in me to lead the firm into the future."

Lobach is a member of the firm's Business, Finance & Creditors' Rights, Real Estate and Education practice groups, as well as the Construction, Health Law, Banking and Hospitality industry Groups. He has been named to "The Best Lawyers in America" list each year between 2013 and 2020 for his work in the Commercial Litigation and Corporate Law practice areas.

In addition to his numerous duties as managing partner, Lobach carries a robust schedule of volunteer work and speaking engagements at organizations like WellSpan Health, York College of Pennsylvania, the York County History Center, the York County Community Foundation, WellSpan York Hospital, the Boy Scouts of America and others.
