OVERVIEW:

Matt is a member of the Finance & Creditors' Rights Practice Group, where his practice includes residential and commercial mortgage foreclosure as well as complex consumer and commercial litigation. His practice also involves representation of secured and unsecured creditors, lenders and landlords in various areas including:

- Bankruptcy
- Eviction and Tenant Disputes
- Mechanics Liens
- Tax Sales
- Title Curative
- Repossessions and Garnishments
- Receiverships
- General Collection
- Bankruptcy Preference Defense
- Commercial Lease Restructuring
- Consumer and Banking Regulatory Compliance
- Breach of Contract
- Appeals
- Federal and State Consumer Protection Defense including Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) and Fair Debt Collection (FDCPA)

With his extensive experience and practical approach, Matt has developed an understanding of how to identify risks, limit exposure and obtain effective and prompt resolution through cost-effective litigation and settlement. He routinely partners with his clients enhancing operational efficiency and compliance, crisis management, and devising both a litigation case strategy and a national litigation approach. Matt has successfully handled all aspects of complex litigation in state and federal courts, and he has also provided valuable on and off-site training for national mortgage servicers addressing emerging trends in foreclosure litigation in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Maryland.
