OVERVIEW:

Through more than three decades, Matt maintains a diverse practice of law that includes real estate, wills, trusts and estates, business law, and family law matters. This includes estate planning and administration, formation of business entities, purchase and sale of businesses, commercial and residential leases matters and municipal, zoning and subdivision matters.

He is also a title insurance agent for Stewart Title and handles real estate closings, including purchases and refinancing for individuals and businesses.

A York County native and Spring Grove Area High School graduate, Matt made it a point to be involved in the Hanover-area community he calls home, working with service organizations, business networking groups and economic development associations.
