For Immediate Release

Lancaster, Pa. - Barley Snyder continues to grow and expand its group of attorneys, as the firm has hired two new associates, Tasha R. Stoltzfus Nankerville and Charmaine E. Nyman.

Both joined the firm in September of 2022, then received news of passing the Pennsylvania Bar Exam in October.

The two new attorneys are:

Tasha R. Stoltzfus Nankerville: A Lancaster native with Amish roots, Nankerville is a member of our Litigation Practice Group in our Lancaster office. She received her J.D. from Villanova University Charles Widger School of Law (cum laude), her master's degree from Villanova University College of Liberal Arts and Sciences (magna cum laude), and her bachelor's degree from Millersville University of Pennsylvania. Nankerville worked as an intern with the Lancaster County District Attorney's office and Villanova Law's Institute to Address Commercial Sexual Exploitation (CSE Institute). She also spent three months as a summer associate with Barley Snyder in 2021.

Charmaine E. Nyman: A Clinton County native, Nyman brings an extensive background working in the legal field through various internships, externships and other experiences. Nyman is a member of our Business and Real Estate practice groups in our Hanover office. Nyman is a magna cum laude graduate of the University of Richmond School of Law and summa cum laude graduate of Kutztown University. She has worked as a paralegal for two years and worked as a judicial intern in the United States District Court, Middle District of Pennsylvania.

"I have no doubt that Tasha and Charmaine will be great assets to the firm based on their ambition, impressive backgrounds and diligence," Barley Snyder managing partner Jeff Lobach said. "We are truly fortunate to attract and retain high-quality talent to serve our communities throughout Central Pennsylvania and beyond."
