Malvern, Pa. - Barley Snyder is proud to announce that Salvatore Anastasi, a partner at the firm, has been named to the Chester County Bar Association Board of Directors for 2017.

Anastasi is one of three new members the bar association voted to the board on Dec 1. He had worked with the bar association previously as the founder of its intellectual property law section.

"The Chester County Bar Association has always been a source of strength for lawyers in our region," Anastasi said. "The group has a very long history, more than three centuries worth, and is one of Pennsylvania's first bar associations. The work the lawyers of Chester County do through the bar, not just in the courtroom but also in the community, truly makes it one of the finest bar associations in the state. It's an honor to be part of the team that will help guide its future."

Anastasi is the chair of Barley Snyder's Intellectual Property Law Group and also a member of the firm's Litigation Group. He has been named a Pennsylvania "Super Lawyer" seven consecutive years.
