OVERVIEW:

Stephanie is a paralegal in the firm's Real Estate Practice Group. She brings extensive experience from the mortgage banking industry, where she spent eight years supporting real estate transactions from application through closing and post-closing. Her background includes preparing, reviewing, and reconciling loan and closing documents; coordinating with title companies, lenders, attorneys and borrowers; and ensuring compliance with regulatory and investor requirements. She is well-versed in title review, escrow coordination, and deadline-driven transaction management.

Before joining Barley Snyder, Stephanie served in various roles including loan processor, loan closer, post-closer and funder, managing high-volume files while maintaining accuracy and attention to detail. Her experience working closely with attorneys and title professionals allows her to anticipate transaction needs and contribute to efficient, well-organized closings. Stephanie is known for her strong organizational skills, clear communication style, and commitment to delivering high-quality client service. She loves spending time with her family, including her granddaughter. In addition, she breeds, raises, and shows bucking bulls.
